Kanyakumari - India's southern most tip, is a breathtaking scenic place to visit. The location of Kanyakumari itself arouses keen interest. It is located at the point where the Bay of Bengal and the Arabian Sea merge with the Indian Ocean.

We landed in Kanyakumari just after the rains and the weather was pleasant with a cool breeze blowing. We changed and quickly ran towards the beach, Where already hundreds of pilgrims and tourists were roaming around. It is impossible to describe the beauty, grandeur of two architectural structures that meet your eye as you reach the beach. For sometime, I stood in awe struck wonder looking at the Vivekanand Statue, and the temple built on high rocks.

Legend has it, that Goddess Parvathi, in one of her incarnations as Kanyakumari, stood on a rock here and left her foot prints, locally known as 'Sri Padha Parai. A temple has been built on the rock with the statue of the goddess in the form of a young girl, adorned by a large nose ring.

a) How was the weather in Kanyakumari just after the rains ?

b) Where is Kanyakumari located ?

c) Who could be seen roaming around on the beach ?

d) What is 'Sri Padha Parai' ?

e) Which are the two architectural structures mentioned in the passage ?
